

Our history

A strong heritage of insurance expertise

Irwell insurance was established in 1994 to offer legal expenses insurance for the Peninsula Group's growing customer base of small and medium sized businesses.

In 2021, we took the exciting decision to share our expertise with the wider liability and legal expenses market to an expanding portfolio of coverholders.

Over 30 years by your side

Our growth is down to the strong partnerships we have made along the way. The professional and personal relationships we establish with our clients sets us apart. We get to know you – and your clients.

We understand your challenges and the unique risks of the sectors in which your clients operate.

That's why we never provide one-size-fits all, standard cover.
And never will.
